ABC Bank fetes Murang'a hero

When Nicholas Muchami, a 45-year old man from Kaganda village, Murang'a County carved a road in his village to save villagers the trouble of using a longer route to their destination, he did not know it would turn him into a local hero to the people of his village.

When his story went viral, many well-wishers came forward to celebrate his selflessness. Some ABC Bank staff took it upon themselves to recognize his efforts in giving back to the community by coming together and contributing household shopping in May.

ABC Bank pledged to support Muchami for his philanthropic act and on 11th June, the Bank delivered on its promise. ABC Bank staff led by General Manager – Treasury & Financial Institutions Philip Wambua surprised Muchami at his home in Kaganda, Murang'a by delivering a high yielding 'grade' dairy cow, a supply of cow feed and livestock insurance right at his doorstep.

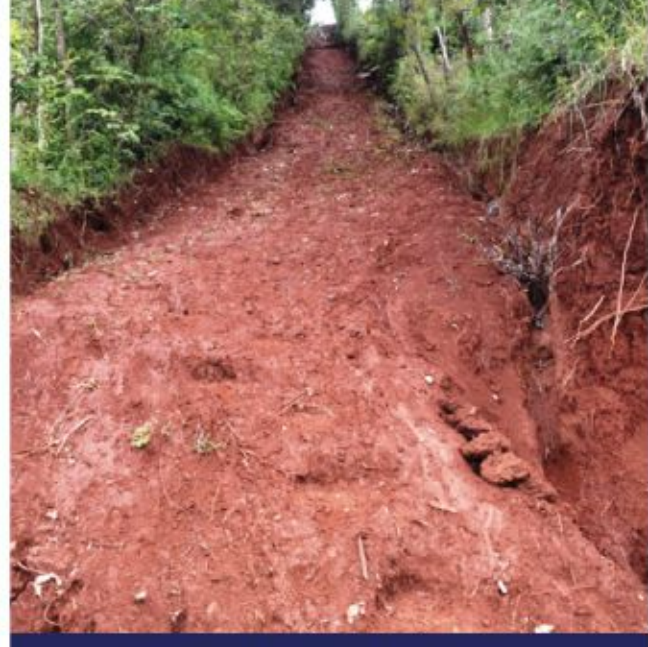

ABC Bank will be checking up on his progress and support him so that he can supply his milk on a daily basis to the local milk processors.
